INTRODUCTION

Pink Floyd was a British famous band of 1960-1967. They played rock.

In 1973 they released The Dark Side of the Moon. They have sold 300,000 discs till now. The group consists of 4 artists: Nick Mason, Roger Waters, Syd Barrett † and Richard Wright †

It influenced many music groups, for example: Queen, Kraftwerk, Tangerine Dream, Can, Eloy,...

NICK MASON

Nick Mason was born on 27 January of 1944. Is an English musician and composer, best known as the drummer of progressive rock group Pink Floyd.

Mason was the only Pink Floyd member to be featured on every one of their albums.

ROGER WATERS

George Roger Waters was born on 6 September of 1943. Is an English singer, songwriter, bassist, and composer.

SYD BARRETT

Syd Barrett was born on 6 January of 1946 and he died on 7 July of 2006. He was a British musician, composer, singer-songwriter, and painter.

Barrett was excluded from Pink Floyd in April 1968 after David Gilmour took over as their new guitarist, and was briefly hospitalised amid speculation of mental illness.

RICHARD WRIGHT

Richard William Wright was born on 28 July of 1943 and he was dead on 15 September of 2008. He was an English musician, composer, singer and songwriter. He was a founding member, keyboardist and vocalist of the band Pink Floyd.

1960-1970

In his epoch also they were touching . And It was played very much Folk and Rock.

The Rolling Stones (1962) , The Who(1964) , Deep Purple (1968) , Led Zeppelin (1968).

The Beatles stood out also at this epoch. The whole world started listening to British music.

It is said that it was an epoch of rock psicologic. In that epoch a lot of band since TheBeatles and Pinck Floyd were playing when they were in drugs and only they were doing live concerts.

TYPE OF MUSIC

Considered one of the UK's first psychedelic music groups. They touched hard rock, blues, country, folk and electronic music.

The song "Careful with That Axe, Eugene" helped galvanise their reputation as a rock group.

INTERVIEW 1

<http://www.pink-floyd.org/artint/dlsmason.html>

DL: Well, good to have you here. Tell us about Pink Floyd. Are they together, are they not together, are they touring, are they recording, are they not, are they, are they not together and recording, are they not together and touring?

NM: Which one would you like me to answer first?

DL: Well, what is the current status of the group?

NM: We're still together, but we're not working very hard at the moment.

DL: And, when do you work, what is it, it's like you go out, you do a tour, and you make a billion dollars?

NM: Well, we certainly hope so, yeah, It's a curious (? Sounds like logistance)

DL: How long has the group been together? How long have you been the drummer? From the beginning?

INTERVIEW 2

NM: I've been the drummer from the beginning.

DL: My God! It's amazing, considering when you guys started, that any of you are still alive, isn't it? I mean .

..

NM: (Laughs)

DL: When you think about it, you know what I mean?

NM: Possibly, yep.

DL: Coz you guys started when, you know, it was really something else going on besides music, you know?

INTERVIEW₃

NM: (Laughs) Absolutely.

DL: Now, tell us about your, ah, I learned something today about you I didn't know, your father, your father was a, ah, a race driver, is that right? A club racer, kinda' thing?

NM: A club racer, he made films about, still does indeed, about, ah, motor sport. He used to race himself, and of course that's where I got the bug from. Coz I was taken to watch.

DL: When you wer a kid. What age were you when you went to your first race?

NM: Probably, six or seven.

DL: Thank you for stay with us.

NM: Bye!
